5 Solicitor's Report	Reported the Adler hearing may be settled out of court.
	Advised that the mulch pile could be sold as recycled material without formal bidding
7 Miscellaneous	Manager reported that the Blvd. walking path was being paved. Manager spoke with the 3 most affected property owners and will proceed to close Buena Vista Road until the Shank Bridge issue is resolved.
	Chief McGovern reported that it looks like a favorable group of candidates for the new hire test for Saturday. The manager asked if we think we should consider hiring 2 rather than just 1 if we have good candidate. A consensus was, yes we should consider, after we see who we have available.
	Supervisor McCracken asked the Chief about fireworks being put off in the area over the weekend. Chief did not know if we received any calls or not.
	Vern Ashway asked the Board to consider Comp Time for snow plowing this season in lue of pay. It was the consensus that either way was fine.

On a (BM/SM) motion the meeting was adjourned at (3:17) PM
