Section 8101-D EI SEQ., AND ADMINISTERED, COLLECTED AND ENFORCED UNDER THE "LOCAL TAX ENABLING ACT," 53 P.S. Section 6901 EI SEQ.; PROVIDING A SEVERABILITY CLAUSE; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

BE IT ENACTED AND ORDAINED, AND IT IS ENACTED AND ORDAINED, BY THE AUTHORITY OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE TOWNSHIP OF WASHINGTON, FRANKLIN COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA, AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Title. This ordinance shall be known as the "Realty Transfer Tax Ordinance of Washington Township, Franklin County, Pennsylvania."

Section 2. Authority. A realty transfer tax for general revenue purposes is hereby imposed upon the transfer of real estate or interest in real estate situate within the Township of Washington, regardless of where the documents making the transfer are made, executed or delivered, or where the actual settlements on such transfer took place, all as authorized by the Act of December 31, 1965, P.L. 1257, as amended, known as "The Local Tax Enabling Act." Pursuant to Act 77 of 1986, the General Assembly of this Commonwealth amended the realty transfer tax provisions of the Tax Reform Code of 1971, and permitted, among other things, the taxing of certain transactions which were heretofore exempt from taxation. By this ordinance, Washington Township intends to bring its real estate transfer tax into conformity with the provisions of Act 77 of 1986, and to tax real estate transactions to the fullest extent permissible under the aforesaid Act.

Section 3. Definitions. The following words, when used in this ordinance, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this Section except in those instances where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

"Document" shall also include a declaration of acquisition required to be presented for recording under Section 8 of this ordinance.

3.4. "Family Farm Corporation." 3.8. "Real Estate Company." A corporation or association which is primarily engaged in the business of holding, selling or leasing real estate, ninety percent or more of the ownership interest in which is held by thirty-five or fewer persons and which:

(1) derives sixty percent or more of its annual gross receipts from the ownership or disposition of real estate; or

encumbrances thereon existing before the transfer and not removed thereby, whether or not the underlying indebtedness is assumed, and ground rents, or a commensurate part thereof where such liens or other encumbrances and ground rents also encumber or are charged against other real estate; provided, that where such documents shall set forth a nominal consideration, the "value" thereof shall be determined from the price set forth in or actual consideration for the contract of sale;

(2) In the case of a gift, sale by execution upon a judgment or upon the foreclosure of a mortgage by a judicial officer, transactions without consideration or for consideration less than the actual monetary worth of the real estate, a taxable lease, an occupancy agreement, a leasehold or possessory interest, any exchange of properties, or the real estate of an acquired company, the actual monetary worth of the real estate is determined by adjusting the assessed value of the real estate for local real estate tax purposes for the common level ratio factor developed by the Pennsylvania Department of Revenue for Pennsylvania realty transfer tax base calculations;

(3) In the case of an easement or other interest in real estate, the value of which is not determinable under clause (1) or (2), the actual monetary worth of such interest; or

(4) The actual consideration for or actual monetary worth of any executory agreement for the construction of buildings, structures or other permanent improvements to real estate between the grantor and other persons existing before the transfer and not removed thereby or between the grantor, the agent or principle of the grantor of a related corporation, association or partnership and the grantee existing before or effective with the transfer.

Section 4. Imposition of Tax: Interest.

4.1. Persons Subject to Tax: Rate of Tax. Every person who makes, executes, delivers, accepts or presents for recording any document or in whose behalf any document is made, executed, delivered, accepted or presented for recording, shall be subject to pay for and in respect to the transaction or any part thereof, a tax at the rate of one percent of the value of the real estate represented by such document, which tax shall be payable at the earlier of the time the document is presented for recording or within thirty days of acceptance of such document or within thirty days of becoming an acquired company.

4.2. Evidence of Payment. The payment of the tax imposed herein shall be evidenced by the affixing of an official stamp or writing by the recorder whereon the date of the payment of the tax, amount of the tax and the signature of the collecting agent shall be set forth.

4.3. Limitation on Amount of Tax. It is the intent of this ordinance that the entire burden of the tax imposed herein on a person or transfer shall not exceed the limitations prescribed in The Local Tax Enabling Act, Act of December 31, 1965, P.L. 1257, 53 P.S. Section 6901 et seq., so that if any other political subdivision has imposed or hereafter shall impose such tax on the same person or transfer then the tax levied by Washington Township under the authority of that Act shall, during the time such duplication of the tax exists, except as hereinafter otherwise provided, be one-half of the rate and such one-half rate shall become effective without any action on the part of the Supervisors of Washington Township provided, however, that the Supervisors of Washington Township and any other political subdivision which imposes such tax on the same person or transfer may agree that, instead of limiting their respective rates to one-half of the rate herein provided, they will impose respectively different rates, the total of which shall not exceed the maximum rate permitted under "The Local Tax Enabling Act."

4.4. Interest. If for any reason the tax is not paid when due, interest at the rate in effect at the time the tax is due shall be added and collected.

Section 5. Exempt Parties. The United States, the Commonwealth, or any of their instrumentalities, agencies or political subdivisions shall be exempt from payment of the tax imposed by this ordinance. The exemption of such governmental bodies shall not, however, relieve any other party to a transaction from liability for the tax.

Section 6. Excluded Transactions. The tax imposed by Section 4 shall not be imposed upon:

6.1. Transfer to Commonwealth. A transfer to the Commonwealth, or to any of its instrumentalities, agencies or political subdivisions, by gift, dedication or deed in lieu of condemnation or deed of confirmation in connection with condemnation proceedings, or a reconveyance by the condemning body of the property condemned to the owner of record at the time of condemnation which reconveyance may include property fine adjustments provided said reconveyance is made within one year from the date of condemnation.

6.2. Documents Prohibited By Federal Law. A document which the Township of Washington is prohibited from taxing under the Constitution or statutes of the United States.

6.3. Transfers to Governmental Body at Sheriff Sale. A conveyance to a municipality, township, school district or county pursuant to acquisition by the municipality, township, school district or county of a tax-delinquent property at sheriff sale or Tax Claim Bureau sale.

6.4. Deeds of Correction. A transfer for no or nominal actual consideration which corrects or confirms a transfer previously recorded, but which does not extend or limit existing record legal title or interest.

6.5. Transfers by Will or Intestate Succession. A transfer of division in kind for no or nominal actual consideration of property passed by testate or intestate succession and held by co-tenants; however, if any of the parties take shares greater in value than their undivided interest, tax is due on the excess.

6.6. Certain Family Transactions. A transfer between husband and wife, between persons who were previously husband and wife who have since been divorced, provided the property or interest therein subject to such transfer was acquired by the husband and wife or husband or wife prior to the granting of the final decree in divorce, between parent and child or the spouse of such child, between brother or sister or spouse of a brother or sister and brother or sister or the spouse of a brother or sister, and between a grandparent and grandchild or the spouse of such grandchild, except that a subsequent transfer by the grantee within one year shall be subject to tax as if the grantor were making such transfer.

6.7. Certain Transfers from Estates. A transfer for no or nominal actual consideration of property passing by testate or intestate succession from a personal representative of a decedent to the decedent's devisee or heir.

6.8. Certain Transfers to Trusts. A transfer for no or nominal actual consideration to a trustee of an ordinary trust where the transfer of the same property would be exempt if the transfer was made directly from the grantor to all of the possible beneficiaries, whether or not such beneficiaries are contingent or specifically named. No such exemption shall be granted unless the recorder of deeds is presented with a copy of the trust instrument that clearly identifies the grantor and all possible beneficiaries.

6.9. Transfers from Trustee to Beneficiary. A transfer for no or nominal actual consideration from a trustee to a beneficiary of an ordinary trust.

6.10. Transfers from Trustee to Successor Trustee. A transfer for no or nominal actual consideration from trustee to successor trustee.

6.11. Principal and Agent or Straw Party Transactions. A transfer (i) for no or nominal actual consideration between principal and agent or straw party; or (ii) from or to an agent or straw party where, if the agent or straw party were his principal, no tax would be imposed under this ordinance.

Where the document by which title is acquired by a grantee or statement of value fails to set forth that the property was acquired by the grantee from, or for the benefit of, his principal, there is a rebuttable presumption that the property is the property of the grantee in his individual capacity if the grantee claims an exemption from taxation under this clause.

6.12. Transfers by Merger of Corporations. A transfer made pursuant to the statutory merger or consolidation of a corporation or statutory division of a nonprofit corporation, except where the department reasonably determines that the primary intent for such merger, consolidation or division is avoidance of the tax imposed by this ordinance.

6.13. Certain Corporate Transfers to Stockholders. A transfer from a corporation or association of real estate held of record in the name of the corporation or association where the grantee owns stock of the corporation or an interest in the association in the same proportion as his interest in or ownership of the real estate being conveyed and where the stock of the corporation or the interest in the association has been held by the grantee for more than two years.

6.14. Transfers from Non-Profit Industrial Development Agencies. A transfer from a nonprofit industrial development agency or authority to a grantee of property conveyed by the grantee to that agency or authority as security for a debt or the grantee or a transfer to a nonprofit industrial development agency or authority.

6.15. Other Transfers from Non-Profit Industrial Development Agencies. A transfer from a nonprofit industrial development agency or authority to a grantee purchasing directly from it, but only if: (i) the grantee shall directly use such real estate for the primary purpose of manufacturing, fabricating, compounding, processing, publishing, research and development, transportation, energy conversion, energy production, pollution control, warehousing or agriculture; and (ii) the agency or authority has the full ownership interest in the real estate transferred.

6.16. Transfers by Mortgagor. A transfer by a mortgagor to the holder of a bona fide mortgage in default in lieu of a foreclosure or a transfer pursuant to a judicial sale in which the successful bidder is the bona fide holder of a mortgage, unless the holder assigns the bid to another person.

6.17. Transfers to Religious Organizations. Any transfer between religious organizations or other bodies or persons holding title for a religious organization if such real estate is not being or has not been used by such transferor for commercial purposes.

6.18. Transfers to Exempt Organizations. A transfer to a conservancy which possesses a tax exempt status pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, (68A Stat. 3, 26 U.S.C. Section 501(c)(3)) and any amendments thereto and which has as its primary purpose preservation of land for historic, recreational, scenic, agricultural or open space opportunities.

6.19. Transfers to Family Farm Corporation. A transfer of real estate devoted to the business of agriculture to a family farm corporation by a member of the same family which directly owns at least seventy-five percent of each class of the stock thereof.

6.20. Transfers of Family Ownership of Family Farm Corporations. A transfer between members of the same family of an ownership interest in a real estate company or family farm corporation.

6.21. De Minimis Transactions. A transaction wherein the tax due is one dollar or less.

6.22. Mineral Leases. Leases for the production or extraction of coal, oil, natural gas or minerals and assignments thereof.

In order to exercise any exclusion provided in this Section 6, the true, full and complete value of the transfer shall be shown on the statement of value. A copy of the Pennsylvania Realty Transfer Tax Statement of Value may be submitted for this purpose. For leases of coal, oil, natural gas or minerals, the statement of value may be limited to an explanation of the reason such document is not subject to tax under this ordinance.

Section 7. Documents Relating to Associations or Corporations and Members, Partners, Stockholders or Shareholders Thereof. Except as otherwise provided in Section 6, documents which make, confirm or evidence any transfer or demise of title to real estate between associations or corporations and the members, partners, shareholders or stockholders thereof are fully taxable. For the purposes of this ordinance, corporations and associations are entities separate from their members, partners, stockholders or shareholders.

Section 8. Acquired Company.

8.1. Definition. A real estate company is an acquired company upon a change in the ownership interest in the company, however effected, if the change does not affect the continuity of the company; and of itself or together with prior changes has the effect of transferring, directly or indirectly, ninety percent or more of the total ownership interest in the company within a period of three years.

8.2. When Family Farm Corporation is an Acquired Company. With respect to real estate acquired after February 16, 1986, a family farm corporation is an acquired company when, because of voluntary or involuntary dissolution, it ceases to be a family farm corporation or when, because of issuance or transfer of stock or because of acquisition or transfer of assets that are devoted to the business of agriculture, it fails to meet the minimum requirements of a family farm corporation under this ordinance.

8.3. Declaration of Acquisition; Contents; Time for Filing. Within thirty days after becoming an acquired company, the company shall present a declaration of acquisition with the recorder of each county in which it holds real estate for the affixation of documentary stamps and recording. Such declaration shall set forth the value of real estate holdings of the acquired company in such county. A copy of the Pennsylvania Realty Transfer Tax Declaration of Acquisition may be submitted for this purpose.

Section 9. Credits Against Tax.

9.1. Transfers by Real Estate Brokers. Where there is a transfer of a residential property by a licensed real estate broker, which property was transferred to him within the preceding year as consideration for the purchase of other residential property, a credit for the amount of the tax paid at the time of the transfer to him shall be given to him toward the amount of the tax due upon the transfer.

9.2. Transfers by Residential Builders. Where there is a transfer by a builder of residential property which was transferred to the builder within the preceding year as consideration for the purchase of new, previously unoccupied residential property, a credit for the amount of the tax paid at the time of the transfer to the builder shall be given to the builder toward the amount of the tax due upon the transfer.

9.3. Transfer of Property Leased by Grantor. Where there is a transfer of real estate which is leased by the grantor, a credit for the amount of tax paid at the time of the lease shall be given the grantor toward the tax due upon the transfer.

9.4. Transfer Under Land Contract. Where there is a conveyance by deed of real estate which was previously sold under a land contract by the grantor, a credit for the amount of tax paid at the time of the sale shall be given the grantor toward the tax due upon the deed.

9.5. Credit Adjustments. If the tax due upon the transfer is greater than the credit given under this Section, the difference shall be paid. If the credit allowed is greater than the amount or tax due, no refund or carryover credit shall be allowed.

Section 10. Extension of Lease. In determining the term of a lease, it shall be presumed that a right or option to renew or extend a lease will be exercised if the rental charge to the lessee is fixed or if a method for calculating the rental charge is established.

Section 11. Proceeds of Judicial Sale. The tax herein imposed shall be fully paid, and have priority out of the proceeds of any judicial sale of real estate before any other obligation, claim, lien, judgment, estate or costs of the sale and of the writ upon which the sale is made, except the state realty transfer tax, and the sheriff or other officer conducting said sale shall pay the tax herein imposed out of the first moneys paid to him in connection therewith. If the proceeds of the sale are insufficient to pay the entire tax herein imposed, the purchaser shall be liable for the remaining tax.

Section 12. Duties of Recorder of Deeds.

12.1. Collection Agent. As provided in 16 P.S. Section 11011-6, as amended by Act of July 7, 1983 (P.L. 40, No. 21), the recorder of deeds shall be the collection agent for the local realty transfer tax, including any amount payable to the Township of Washington based on a redetermination of the amount of tax due by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania of the Pennsylvania realty transfer tax, without compensation from the Township of Washington.

12.2. Statement of Value. In order to ascertain the amount of taxes due when the property is located in more than one political subdivision, the recorder shall not accept for recording such a deed unless it is accompanied by a statement of value or indicated on the document showing what taxes are due each municipality.

12.3. Time for Payments to Township. On or before the tenth of each month, the recorder shall pay over to the Township of Washington all local realty transfer taxes collected, less two percent for use of the county, together with a report containing the information as is required by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in reporting collections of the Pennsylvania realty transfer tax. The two percent commission shall be paid to the county.

12.4. Rerecording. Upon a redetermination of the amount of realty transfer tax due by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the recorder shall rerecord the deed or record the additional realty transfer tax form only when both the state and local amounts and a rerecording or recording fee has been tendered.

Section 13. Statement of Value. Every document lodged with or presented to the recorder of deeds for recording, shall set forth therein and as a part of such document the true, full and complete value thereof, or shall be accompanied by a statement of value executed by a responsible person connected with the transaction showing such connection and setting forth the true, full and complete value thereof or the reason, if any, why such document is not subject to tax under this ordinance. A copy of the Pennsylvania Realty Transfer Tax Statement of Value may be submitted for this purpose. The provisions of this Section 13 shall not apply to any excludable real estate transfers which are exempt from taxation based on family relationship. Other documents presented for the affixation of stamps shall be accompanied by a certified copy of the document and statement of value executed by a responsible person connected with the transaction showing such connection and setting forth the true, full and complete value thereof or the reason, if any, why such document is not subject to tax under this ordinance.

-----Section 14. Civil Penalties.

14.1. Underpayment. If any part of any underpayment of tax imposed by this ordinance is due to fraud, there shall be added to the tax an amount equal to fifty percent of the underpayment.

14.2. Failure to Record Declaration. In the case of failure to record a declaration required under this ordinance on the date prescribed therefor, unless it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause, there shall be added to the tax five percent of the amount of such tax if the failure is for not more than one month, with an additional five percent for each additional month or fraction thereof during which such failure continues, not exceeding fifty percent in the aggregate.

Section 15. Lien. The tax imposed by this ordinance shall become a lien upon the lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or any interest therein, lying, being situated, wholly or in part within the boundaries of the Township of Washington, which lands, tenements, hereditaments, or interest therein, are described in or conveyed by or transferred by the deed which is the subject of the tax imposed, assessed and levied by this ordinance, said lien to begin at the time when the tax under this ordinance is due and payable, and continue until discharge by payment, or in accordance with the law, and the Solicitor is authorized to file a municipal or tax claim in the Court of Common Pleas of Franklin County, in accordance with the provisions of the Municipal Claims and Liens Act of 1923, 53 P.S. Section 7101 et seq., its supplements and amendments.

Section 16. Enforcement. All taxes imposed by this ordinance, together with interest and penalties prescribed herein, shall be recoverable as other debts of like character are recovered.

The regulations which have been promulgated by the Pennsylvania Department of Revenue under 72 P.S. Section 8101-C et seq. are incorporated into and made a part of this ordinance.

Section 18. Severability. Should any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this ordinance be declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, such decision shall not affect the validity of the ordinance in its entirety or of any part thereof other than that declared to be invalid.

Section 19. Effective Date. This ordinance shall be effective 30 days after its enactment.

Section 20. Repealer. All prior ordinances and sections thereof, insofar as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance, are hereby repealed.
